

Research Places

Visit your local library and/or museum and find out about your area in Tudor times. Are there any maps, buildings or artefacts from that era? Create a scrapbook or poster of photos, leaflets and any other information you discover.

Research Tudor buildings. Find out about features such as jetties, chimneys and wattle and daub. Present your findings using illustrations and notes.

Research People

Tudor times were a great period of sea voyages and global exploration. Create a presentation about Tudor explorers and the new products they brought home.

Create a presentation about Anne Boleyn - her family and childhood.

Home Learning Ideas!

Off with her head! – YEAR 4

Draw

Paint or draw a portrait of someone in your family. What objects or symbols could be included to show the person's character? Embellish your drawing with different materials to add interest and texture.

Make sketches of Tudor costumes for children and adults, rich and poor. Use websites and books from your local library to find out about garments, styles and decorative details.

Make

Make a model of the Tower of London - or perhaps an instrument of torture, complete with fake blood stains!

Make a Tudor brooch, ring or headdress. Take a photo of yourself wearing your item in your most stately pose!

Design a Tudor snakes and ladders-style board game, with pitfalls and lucky breaks on the way to freedom from the Tower!

Find and copy examples of monarchs' signatures. Can you create a magnificent Tudor-style moniker of your own with a signature to match!?

Present

Hold a heated debate in your family about house rules. Video the event, take a vote and record the results. Was there a worthy winner?

Do you have horrible humour? Write some 'knock-knock' or 'what do you call a...' jokes about grisly Tudor facts. Present jester-style stand-up performance for your family.
