Dear Parents and Carers,

Please see the highlights of this week in school:

- Road Safety Week for Years 1 to 4 this week saw a very funny hedgehog needing help to keep safe on the roads and a very large green man teaching the children how to cross the road safely.
- On my travels around the school this week, I was privileged to see some amazing teaching and learning going on. 1A delved into the story of Little Red Riding Hood and Ms Goodwin asked the children to describe the Big Bad Wolf using adjectives. Immediately, the classroom erupted: nasty, mean, vicious, unkind, selfish – the words flew around like confetti at a party. Just when Ms Goodwin thought the list had finally run out and she could take a breath, Lenny raised his hand. With all the seriousness of a detective solving a crime, he announced, “Well, Miss... I think he’s emotionally not very well. I mean... no one goes around eating grandmas, do they?” The room went silent for a heartbeat – then erupted into laughter, because, suddenly, the Big Bad Wolf didn’t seem so big and bad after all!
- Y2 were studying ‘Magnificent Monarchs’ and I witnessed Queen Mary (strangely resembling Ms Wisby!) regally sitting in the corner of 2A’s classroom whilst the children were examining historic artefacts and deciding what the artefacts could have been used for and why they were important to monarchs.
- And 6A were debating the role of women in society which was a spicy discussion to say the least! I was also extremely impressed with Y6’s progress in our Oracy Programme. We’ve only just begun but already I’m noticing a shift in confidence as children take on fictional roles and ad-lib a given scene!
- We have been very lucky in receiving a free donation from a large company in London who delivered 2 backless sofas to us which we had originally planned to use outside for ‘posh’ seating but, on seeing what good quality the sofas were, we’re rethinking our use for them and considering using them in the Junior library!!
- Today marks the deadline date for applications for EYFS in September 2026 so, if you were hoping to enrol your child here in September, I hope you’ve made your application!!

- And, finally, we welcomed 8 more prefects onto our books today! Congratulations to Neve, Daniel CJ, Fraser, Ollie, Logan, Leah, Amber and Rayquaan who have shown the qualities to be excellent student role models and to help support me in maintaining high standards in every area of school life! We wish them all the best on their Prefect Journey.
- And that's it for news this week - it just remains for me to wish you a lovely weekend and I leave you with this thought:

“Teach your children to be a good friend because some children don’t go home to love.”

With kind regards and best wishes,

Mrs. Searle
